

Mr K R Mohan Ananthanarayanan is a Mechanical Engineering Graduate from Calicut University, Kerala, with a Masters in Quality Management from Birla Institute of Technology and Science, Pilani. A Diploma in IPR 2009; Certified Six Sigma black belt since 2019; Certified QMS Lead Auditor; Harvard X certificate on Improving Global Health: Focusing on Quality and Safety 2021.

37 years of experience in Aerospace quality at Vikram Sarabhai Space Centre (VSSC ISRO)

- QA expert in Human flight space centre
- Member of Absolute quality training program of VSSC.
- Consultant for industries on special processes
- Conducted 91 training programs in industries and in professional societies.
- Presented technical lectures in engineering colleges and conducted 'quality quiz.'
- Was a member of technical committee of BIS between 2007-2011.

He headed the Quality Division for Quality Assurance of supplier systems and products with five resident teams at Walchandnagar, Powai, Hyderabad, Chennai and Bengaluru. He is a faculty in NDT level 2 UT, LPT and VT.

At NIQR, a member of IAQR Trivandrum since 1985 and continuing with NIQR. He was the Secretary of Trivandrum Branch for four years and presently the Vice-Chairman.

He had organized several workshops on QA, NDT and ISO QMS for the NIQR Trivandrum branch. He is a Mentor of Amal Jyothi Engineering College Student Chapter of NIQR which won the national NIQR award at Chennai and also contributed technical papers and articles of NIQR newsletter and journals.

He is a Member of American Society for Quality, Life member in Society of Aerospace Manufacturing Engineers, System Society of India, Astronautical Society of India and ISNT.