

Mr. V. Raghavan is a Mechanical Engineering from PSG College of Technology, Coimbatore and master's in quality, Reliability and Operations Research from Indian Statistical Institute, Kolkata.

He started his career as a Graduate Engineer Trainee with Sundaram Clayton Limited at Hosur and worked in the area of Production and Production Planning and Control. Thereafter, he worked with Crompton Greaves in Mumbai and was involved in initiating improvements using Statistical Process Control and Design of Experiments. At S & S Power Switchgear & General Optics, he was exposed to Quality Management Systems.

Associated with TAO Consulting Systems, Chennai for over two decades - focusing on implementation of Japanese Management Methods. He has worked with Auto-components, Chemicals, Pharmaceuticals and Apparel Manufacturing sectors, focusing on industrial engineering, lean management and statistical methods.

Raghavan has attended the AOTS program on Quality Control.

A National Executive Council member of NIQR since 2000, he is currently the National Treasurer.