

Mr. S. Rajasekaran holds a bachelor's in physics, a Post-Graduate in Public Administration and Post-Graduate in Management and is currently a Research Scholar in TQM pursuing his Doctorate at Savitha University. The doctoral research is focused on FMEA (Failure Mode Effect Analysis) effectiveness in Auto Industry.

Held various positions in auto Industry and has 30 years of experience in Manufacturing and last served as Supply chain Head for Tenneco Automotive Inc. Currently an Entrepreneur, he is Group Managing Director of Ace Group of Companies - Infant Engineers Private Limited, Unicorn (Bangalore) P Ltd, Ace Software Solutions P Ltd, and Ace Friends park, luxury resort in Yelagiri Hills.

He is the Immediate Past-President of National Institution for Quality and Reliability (NIQR) and (SIMA)-Sipcot Irungatukottai Manufacturers Association.

President CI MSME (Chamber of Industries Micro Small & Medium Industries) Tamil Nadu and Technical Steering Committee Head- C4I4 initiative by Ministry of heavy Industries & Kirloskar Institute to promote Industry 4.0 implementation in MSME sector.

Mr Rajasekaran has designed and developed industry 4.0 modules with Machine learning in machining process for Production Management, Process control Management, Tool Monitoring and Maintenance Management for In-house implementation and for the industry in general. His organisations have received Best supplier awards from OEMs & Tier1's in India.

Rajasekaran has Established more than 10 student Chapters under NIQR to promote academia industry interaction. Delivered several lectures to the student community on topics of entrepreneurship, Industry 4.0, Quality Management System.

He has also contributed immensely to social causes. Currently, he is the Chairman of the Committee on NIQR-Dr. V. Krishnamurthy Medal for Manufacturing Excellence for MSMEs.